

UrbaChina Newsletter

UrbaChina, a FP7 programme coordinated by CNRS-EHESS

2014-25 (June)

Contested urban spaces whose right to the city?

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

China Perspectives 2014/2. Issue edited by Bettina Gransow.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10076>

New methodology for the analysis of urban competitiveness of Chinese cities

edited by Oriane Pillet

An article about the methodology developed for the analysis of urban competitiveness in industrialization applied to 25 major cities in China during three periods, from 1990 to 2009.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10100>

A vanishing Chongqing

written by Miguel Elosua

This photo was taken behind the Ciyun monastery (慈云寺) in Nanan district (南岸区), Chongqing, on 30 May 2014.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10088>

The hukou converters

edited by Monique Abud

A study of the 'hukou converters', i.e. people born in rural China who now live in urban areas of China and possess a residence permit.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10043>

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/>
urbachina-edition@services.cnrs.fr

UrbaChina Newsletter

Chinese perceptions of the European Union

edited by Monique Abud

Article by Dong Lisheng (Chinese Academy of Social Sciences), in which the author "conducts a comparative analysis of the perceptions of the EU by the Chinese general public and the elite".

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10037>

4th UrbaChina International Conference handbook

written by Chi-Han Ai

The 4th UrbaChina International Conference was held in Chongqing from 28 May to 30 May 2014 and organised by Chongqing University. The handbook can now be downloaded.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10060>

Chengdu: China's most liveable city according to ADB

edited by Sebastien Goulard

Asian Development Bank's report on China's most liveable cities.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/10052>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Funded under the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme, UrbaChina is a collaborative project managed by a consortium of 11 leading Chinese and European research institutions. UrbaChina analyses China's urbanisation trends for the next 40 years and define possible future scenarios with reference to concepts of sustainability.

Members:

- CNRS
- East China Normal University
- Development Research Centre
- University of Birmingham
- Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
- LSE
- Chinese Academy of Sciences
- ISIS
- University of Lisbon
- People's University
- Anhui academy of Environmental Science Research